

Why you

THINK
YOU
NEED

Do you recall the time when you were in first or second grade, sitting at your desk wondering "What am I?" I do, I just couldn't remember quite how I got there. I could remember some things, but not everything. Your parents are forced to put you in school. A parent that does not register their children in school, or "home school" them will be brought up on charges. Simply put, you will be arrested, child services will become involved, and you risk losing your child.

The school system which consists of elementary, middle and high school are required for your children to attend. Too many unexcused absences can "raise flags" causing a punishment or penalty for each parent.

Each time a child learns his ABC's and 123's it's just a matter of time before the government can add their name to the "bottom line". While a "Scholarship" seems like a privilege it's actually "the method" that is used to get you to stay in school longer. You see, the more money you make, the more to contemplate in place of acting instinctively. People are mammals, a primate being. People are animals, predators who hunt instinctively. People hunt people to have sex with them, this is perfectly normal. People use their penis, vagina, anus, and tongue to excite their partners.

*Ephesians 5:21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

- submit - to give in to someone or something
- yourselves - a form of you
- one - any person
- to - in a direction toward
- another - someone else
- in - at or inside of something
- fear - expecting harm; to be afraid of
- God - THE CREATOR (your heavenly Father)

*I John 3:18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

- Children - a young person
- Not - do not
- love - to feel passion, or a strong affection for someone
- Word - speech, sound or symbol used to communicate, a message
- Neither - not the one, ~~nor~~ the OTHER
- tongue - the spoken language; dialect
- deed - An action taken

Page 4 of 14 • truth - real, based on fact

So, realistically if you took away clothing and you had tons of people walking around naked with erect penis's and soaked vaginas submitting one to another what action would be taking place? Would people Submit by "doing your dishes" or "mowing your yard"? Would you have someone Submit to you and "do your laundry"? What? tie your shoes? dust your shelves, make your bed? NO dipshit, it means get on your fucking knees and suck this dick! Or, Bend over so I can eat your ass!

SUBMIT

BI SMUT
I MUST

- BI - Bisexual
- SMUT - Naughty Fuckin'
- I - me, you
- MUST - used to show what is necessary or what has to be done

I John 3:18 Says "Love not in word but in deed,

Page 5 of 14 in other words... Shut the fuck up & start Fuckin'!

*Galatians 5:14 For All the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
 OK, simply rearrange the letters of "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" and you'll find the clue, its an anagram.

~~"Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself"~~
 Begin - holy truth have ass hole of thy slut

People usually don't repeat this verse exactly how it is written, they usually say "Love your neighbor as yourself" which basically says the same thing.

~~"Love your neighbor as yourself"~~
 You'll bring free ass over you no

Now your going to need a computer to calculate the probability of this phenomena that you see here...

*II Corinthians 13:8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. HA HA!

Otto Von Hopsburg, a member of the European Parliament (His father ruled Europe until the Austrian/Hungarian empire came to an end) said... "the ignorance in America is overwhelming." He also stated that the concentration of power in America was frightening. We will start with Andrew Jackson, he said "You are a den of vipers, I intend to root you out and by the eternal God, I will root you out. If the people only understood the marks injustice of our money and banking system, there would be a revolution before morning." This remark aimed at the international bankers triggered an unsuccessful assassination attempt on his life. Speaking shortly thereafter to Martin Van Buren (his vice president) president Jackson stated "that the bank is trying to kill me." This was only the beginning. Abraham Lincoln tried desperately to stop the Rothschilds at involving themselves in financing the civil war. Baron Nathan Rothschild said: "Let me issue and control a nation's money, and I care not who writes the laws." Treasury Secretary Salmon P Chase forced a bill, the National banking act, through congress. This created a federally chartered central bank that had the power to issue U.S. banknotes. After this happened Abraham warned the American Money power preys upon the nation in time of peace and conspires against it in times of adversity. It is more despotic than a Monarchy, more insolent than autocracy, more selfish than bureaucracy. I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of our country. Corporations have been enthroned, an era of corporation will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until wealth is aggregated in the few hands and the republic is destroyed.

Lincoln's anticipated success and influence in the congress to limit the life of the bank of the United States to just the war years was the motivating factor behind his assassination. Researchers can now link Lincoln's secretary of war, Edwin Stanton, to John Wilkes Booth and his eight conspirators, with over 70 government officials and businessmen. These same individuals have now been linked to the bank of Rothschilds in Europe. After the diary that Booth kept was recovered by Stanton's troops, it was reported that 18 pages were torn out. These pages were later found and contained the conspirators names. The missing pages were found in the attic of one of Stanton's descendants. A coded message found in Booth's trunk linked him directly to Julius P. Benjamin, the civil war campaign manager in the south for the house of Rothschilds. After the war the key to the code was found in Benjamin's possession.

President William McKinley openly declared that whoever controlled the supply of currency would control the business and activities of all of the people. Four months later he was shot in a railroad station on July 2 1881.

The Federal Reserve was designed to deceive. It is not federal because it is not owned by the government. It's a privately owned corporation that pays its own postage and has stockholders. The physical property is held in private deeds and is subject to taxation, which, of course, government property is not. It controls everything around us.

So here's how this went down... In November 1910 (first clue November has the word "OVER" and 1910 is really a 911) after having consulted with the Rothschild banks in England, France, and Germany, Senator Nelson Aldridge boarded a Private ~~TRAIN~~ in Hoboken, New Jersey.

Simply must not happen or else all our time and effort would be wasted.

Now I'm not sure associating the word taboo with their "last names" had anything to do with Anagrams. Let's have a look at the clues...

Rothschild - Cori
 Aldridge - dead
 Morgan - groan
 Strong - no
 Norton - not
 Davidson - vain
 Vanderlip - end
 Kun-Loeb - un
 Andrew - end
 Warburg - WAR
 Aldrich - RICH

There are several more "warning signs" in each name, however I only wrote down one word each.

Their goal was to establish a "Private" bank that would control the national currency. The challenge was to slip the scheme by the representatives of the American people. Initially it had been called the "Aldrich bill" and the devious planners changed the bill title to the "Federal Reserve Act" to mask its real nature. This system would now control the nation's issue of money. Its board consisting of 12 districts and one director (12 + 1 = 13, another "Clue"), the Federal Reserve Chairman, would control the nation's financial resources by controlling the money supply, available credit, and by mortgaging the government through borrowing.

Right away there was a problem because President William Howard Taft made it clear he would veto the bill if introduced. Their plan was to see to it that Taft did not win the re-election. In exchange for their support Woodrow Wilson promised to sign their bill into law, however the polls indicated Wilson only had 45% of the vote. They arranged for Teddy Roosevelt to run against both of them in the "Bull Moose Party". An example is using Ross Perot to defeat George Bush and getting Bill Clinton elected. Clever.

This plan worked because the vote was held until December 23rd, when most of the voters were absent. The remaining voters were bribed or somehow persuaded to "pass" the bill. Woodrow Wilson later felt that he had made a "terrible mistake" by signing the Federal Reserve Act. He later wrote: Some of the biggest men in the United States in the field of commerce and manufacturing are Afraid of Something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.

The Monetary Control Act of 1980 expanded the power of the Federal Reserve system by giving them control over all depository institutions. Now they can attack American taxpayers with foreign debt. Around December 15, 1931 Louis T. McFadden said "The Federal Reserve Board are more concerned with foreign customers than they are with U.S. customers. On Friday, June 10, 1932, McFadden again stated "We have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. These private monopolies prey upon the people of the United States. Thomas Jefferson said "I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. President John F. Kennedy planned to exterminate the Federal Reserve Act. President Kennedy was assassinated later by professional assassins. Later Congressman Larry P. McDonald, Sen. John Heinz, Sen. John Tower, White House Deputy Council Vincent W. Foster were all killed. Coincidence?
