

Am I Gay?

- gay - merry; homosexual
- * Ecclesiastes 8:15 Then I commanded mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

Could this "merry" be the same "merry" that is in our dictionary? Some people are gay, is this a choice?

* Ecclesiastes 9:2 All things come alike to all...

* Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is a evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all:

- all - everything; anything; the whole of
- things - Deeds or Acts; ideas, notions
- Come - to reach the point of becoming; ARRIVE
- alike - equally; SIMILAR
- to - toward
- all - everyone

Simply put, everyone is the same! If you have ever watched a t.v. program about animals, every single animal is "doing" the same thing!!!

Can you imagine every bitch sittin' nude with their legs spread wide open so you could see their pussies?

OK, moving right along, let me point out the similar behavior force in the male child. How many times have you seen a small boy crying, only to be corrected by the dad saying "toughen up son..." "Don't be a sissy..." "Boys don't cry..." OK, the same shit just happened with the small male child. The natural thing to do was cry, and be a sissy... But because of pride and "family traditions," the young child is "redirected" to "being a man..." He is taught from a very young age that in order to "be a man," you cannot be a sissy! Looking honestly at the situations you can clearly see that girls are sluts and boys are sissies!

For the last 3 or 4 years I have been locked up with hundreds of males. Very quickly I noticed "the pattern..." A male inmate would be at my bunk talking and several inmates would approach. The male that I was privately speaking with would suddenly change his voice, that's right, he would put more "bass" in his voice, he would be speaking to me one way then suddenly change his voice to "sound more manly..." Why was this happening? Everyone would do this. So the natural speech from a male is a "higher" tone, and the "learned" behavioral tone is "lower..." I noticed the exact same pattern in females. You too can hear the same "change" in pitch or tone. A female will "answer" the phone, and depending on who it is, the female will change the pitch of her voice. She answers on a normal "low" pitch, then changes to a "higher" pitch. In summary these changes are an attempt to appear "different" than normal.

OK, moving along, another behavior "modification" that I have noticed in myself is the fact that I will look at the penis briefly, then I will look away awkwardly. Let me explain: I will be watching T.V. and an underwear commercial will come on... They will show male loins centered in the screen. I look at the penis first, then I'll immediately glance somewhere else, anywhere else. I've been doing this as long as I can remember. Now I know why... Instincts and fear... I automatically look, and fear makes me look away. The exact same thing happens when someone bends over... Automatically my mind "is aware" that there is "an ass present." If someone is in my cell sitting on the toilet, then my mind takes over. I mean that "something" happens inside my "body" that "becomes" the "focal point." Why is this? These are your instincts taking over at the appropriate time. Now either I have struck a nerve in your body, or you are a robot. We both know you are not a robot, you're an animal... Animals react instinctively, automatically!! Next time that you are in this situation, you will immediately notice this because you will look away and then you will remember what I have said here. Next you'll have to ask yourself "why" did I just look away quickly? I'll go ahead and answer the question...

We are forced to look... I also noticed that whenever "females" are present, as soon as one turns around all the other females, "ALWAYS" look at her ass, everytime! This is a beautiful thing! Even if the female claims that she is not bi-sexual, she still always looks at the ass of the female that is walking away... Why?

I'M ANAL!

Simply put, fear keeps you from admitting the truth. How many times have you been masturbating and had the thought "man I wish I could fold over and suck my dick" You've probably tried... Dude, your gay! Get over it, whats the matter, are you scared? You probably thought that you were the only person who thought that or did that... NOPE, every one is the same!! You ever put your finger up your butt?
